

THE ASSOCIATION OF BLACK JUDGES
THE D. AUGUSTUS STRAKER BAR
THE WOLVERINE BAR ASSOCIATION
PRESENT
"THE 2010 BAR PASSAGE PROGRAM"

The 2010 Bar Passage Program (BPP) is designed to improve bar passage rates of needy law school graduates sitting for the Michigan Bar Exam. Statistics reveal that many law school graduates underestimate the importance of the essay portion on the bar exam. Therefore, while traditional bar review courses focus only on the multi-state portion of the exam, the BPP uniquely focuses on essay writing techniques to help you maximize your overall bar exam results. In addition, the BPP offers a rare and extremely informative live lecture from an actual member of the Michigan Board of Bar Examiners!

Through weekly examinations, a mock bar examination, and group and one-on-one sessions and lectures by local attorneys, BPP provides assistance in the areas of: (i) Essay Writing Skills/Strategy; (ii) Test Taking Skills/Strategy; (iii) Time Management; and (iv) Stress Management. BPP does not review substantive law. Accordingly, BPP should be taken in conjunction with a traditional bar review course to give you the ultimate edge in studying for "both the multi-state and essay sections" of the exam.

In addition, the first session is open and free to learn more about the program for future bar exam preparation!
